MISS JAPAN OF 1952 PREFERS CHOPIN ON PIANO TO SAMISEN MUSIC, REJECTS HOLLYWOOD OFFERS

OAKLAND, Calif. — Mills College here can boast that it hides within its confines a rare combination of beauty and brains — in the person of Miss Hinako Kojima, Miss Japan for 1952.

The winsome beauty, a candidate for Miss Universe in Long Beach, last year, turned down several Hollywood offers.

"I'm much more interested in my studies," she has shyly said.

Miss Kojima, attrative in sweaters and bathing suits as well as kimonos, is concentrating on music at school. She said she doesn't like the Japanese samisen and koto as instruments, and would rather play Chopin on the piano any time.

Although she says she is too busy with her studies to have many dates, she has observed that American men are much kinder to her than Japanese swains. She said they hold doors open for her, and walk beside her, not in front — courtesies relatively unheard of in her homeland.

Her father, an Osaka importer and a Harvard graduate, came with her to Long Beach for the Miss Universe contest. Her oriental dignity remained firm throughout, and the offer of a movie career was promptly rejected.

Watsonville Barber Who Refused Haircut to Nisei Veteran Closes Incident With Letter of Apology

WATSONVILLE, Calif. — The Watsonville barber shop incident has been amicably settled here, according to the Watsonville Register-Pajaronian recently.

A happy ending to the controversy which shook the community late last year was written when the Watsonville barber who refused service to a Nisei veteran sent the latter a note of apology.

"I apologize for any humiliation you may have suffered at my hands," the barber wrote, after observing that "every person should be judged as an individual and not on the basis of race, religion or color."

The letter was received by James M. Yoshida, the central figure in the incident which started last October when he was refused service by the barber.

He wrote the local newspaper about the incident and his part was taken by local veterans organization, the Watsonville JACL and Northern California regional office, deputy district attorney John L. McCarthy.

72 Nisei Girls Compete In Honolulu Contest

HONOLULU, T.H. — Seventy-two of the loveliest of Honolulu's young girls of Japanese ancestry paraded through the city last week in an hour and a half motorcade in their first public appearance as contestants in the Cherry Blossom Festival queen contest.

The festival, a trade and tourist stimulation, as well as a cultural program, is sponsored by the Honolulu Japanese Junior Chamber of Commerce.

PLACES THIRD IN PIANO DUO IN KIWANIS FESTIVAL

Placing third in the piano duo for persons under 17 at the Kiwanis Music Festival in Toronto recently was Mayumi Yamasaki. She played with Elsie Drezdak.

Audrey Totter to Speak On Brotherhood on CKEY

The first in a series of weekly broadcasts of the program, "Brotherhood for Common Good", will be presented this Thursday, March 12, over radio station CKEY in Toronto. The program is sponsored by the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

Star of this week's program, "Ballot of Brotherhood", will be Audrey Totter, Hollywood movie actress, who will narrate the story of Mr. and Mrs. Sing Sheng, a Chinese American couple who were denied the right to live in a section of a California city last year.

Following the narration, [illegible] representing various [illegible] tions, will take part in a panel discussion. The program [illegible] from 10.07 to 10.30 p.m.

Groups to Discuss Centre Plans

A plan for a "Community Centre" in Toronto, under preliminary discussion for the past four years by the Toronto JCCA Issei Division and other Issei groups, will be brought forth another step into realization when the Toronto JCCA convenes a meeting this Sunday, March 15, at the Canadian Legion Hall.

All Japanese Canadian organizations in Toronto — sports, social and cultural — are expected to send representatives to the meeting since a Community Centre would involve all groups and be a co-operative venture.

A meeting was held late last year by the Issei Division to discuss the feasibility and practicability of a Community Centre for Japanese Canadians. Aspects of the cost, type of structure and other details were discussed.

A sum of $50,000 was set as the cost of the proposed community centre with the building to include a hall with a capacity for at least 100 persons. Smaller rooms will also be set aside for various meetings and offices. A recreation room, judo hall, several bedrooms, and perhaps the Ontario JCCA Old-Age Home project, will also be included in the plans.

The community centre will be constructed where further additions to the building can be made at a later time.

The meeting will commence from 2 p.m.

Prince Rupert Nisei In Golden Gloves

VANCOUVER — One of the contenders in the lightweight division of the third annual Golden Gloves Tournament sponsored by the Vancouver Province at the Exhibition Gardens, March 6-7, was Bill Tsuchiya of Prince Rupert.

Tsuchiya is 17 years old and is boxing out of the Prince Rupert Elks Club.

His entry brings back the memory of another Japanese Canadian, Tadao Kato of North Vancouver, who battled to the Dominion title and swept his division in the Seattle Golden Gloves in 1940. Kato's boxing career, however, ended when he lost his hand in a mill accident.

Montreal Kabuki Shown on TV

MONTREAL — The Montreal Japanese Drama Club's presentation of the kabuki, "Benkai Joshi No Dan", was expected to have been televised over CBFT on March 9 and March 10.

The kabuki was filmed for television when the Drama Club presented its "Grand Concert" on March 7 in honor of the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hori, well-known Montreal residents. The kabuki was one of the features on the program.

Actors in the kabuki were S. Henmi, Mrs. H. Kobayakawa, Eiko Henmi, S. Yamamoto, Connie Oike, Shirley Shikatani, Dorothy Okata and Kim Osaka.

Directors Elected For Montreal Hall

MONTREAL — The first meeting of directors of the Japanese Canadian Community Centre was held on Feb. 27 with the officers elected as following:

Advisers are Dr. George Hori, George Tanaki and Ernest Yamaoka. Executive directors are Charles J. Tanaka, board chairman; Koichiro Miyasaki, Japanese sec'y; Kim Osaka, English sec'y; Hikotaro Shiomi, treasurer; Jimmy Horiuchi, ass't treasurer; Yosohichi Ebata, house manager; Mrs. E. Yamaoka, ass't house manager.

Auditors are Takazo Watanabe and Kim Nakashima.

Included in the board are councillors from various supporting organizations in Montreal.

The opening ceremonies of the Community Hall are expected to be held on April 18.

Former Anti-Japanese Agitator Welcomes JCCA

VANCOUVER, B.C. — Alderman Halford D. Wilson, well known figure to Japanese Canadians as an anti-Japanese agitator in pre-war years, made the welcome address on behalf of the city to delegates to the recent B.C. JCCA Conference at Hotel Georgia. A text of his speech was received last week. He said, in part:

"It is an honor that I can be here to welcome you. When we go back a few years, there may be some of you who felt that I did not have a kindly disposition towards our Canadian citizens of Japanese origin. Yet it is said that time proves everything. We can see that in God all things work for the good, and I feel that during the past decade circumstances and times have changed.

"We had in Vancouver a large Japanese [illegible] I [illegible] [illegible] I have [illegible] Canada [illegible] Japanese Canadians [illegible] are taking a very active part in the communities in which they are settled. You will find them on the Board of Trade, Junior Chamber of Commerce and other organizations. I think that that could never have happened if circumstances were like those in the area of Vancouver before the war.

"I believe that Providence has designed things for the Japanese, and that is why we are all citizens of Canada and although our parents have come from different lands, we are all working for one thing. Regardless of race, creed or color, we all believe in brotherhood.

"We believe it is the responsibility of the community to be interested in the welfare of the individual. That is one reason why I have accepted a position on the Vancouver Civic Unity Council which is made of of delegates from ethnic groups, churches, Junior Chamber of Commerce, [illegible] groups and all organizations interested in the development of this society. We have [illegible] together for the betterment of all.

"I extend to you all a welcome to our [illegible] and I am sure, in looking [illegible] the convention agenda, [illegible] you will work towards [illegible] welfare of the JCCA in B.C. I [illegible] sure that your primary purpose is to work for the betterment of all", Mr. Wilson concluded.

TORONTO NISEI TENOR PURSUING CAREER IN N.Y., INTRODUCED ON RADIO AS 'JAPANESE CARUSO'

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Frank Kumagai, well-known Toronto Nisei tenor, who struck out to New York, the mecca of all artists, last fall, to continue his career of singing, appears to be progressing rapidly there.

Kumagai was accepted as a pupil by the world famous Metropolitan Opera singer, Giovanni Martinelli, who has a reputation of accepting only the best of students. Says Martinelli, "Frank has a beautiful voice, a good musical background, and there isn't too much I can teach him".

The Nisei tenor performed briefly in a night club but he states that he did not care for the work as the owners only want an entertainer, not a singer. At one time as a guest singer over a radio station, he was introduced as a "Japanese Caruso".

During his stay in New York, Kumagai has been singing for churches and a variety of events and everyone agrees that he is the best Japanese singer that they have ever heard. He is scheduled to sing shortly for the Christ Church on Park Avenue, the outstanding Methodist church in New York.

One of his most recent performances was a solo spot at the Testimonial Banquet last month for Mike Masaoka, former legislative director of the JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee and noted lobbyist in Washington. The banquet was held to commemorate the enactment of legislation for equality in immigration and naturalization.

Following his relocation to Toronto, Kumagai studied at the Royal Conservatory of Music, and was tenor soloist at Simpson Avenue United Church. He is familiar to many Nisei in Toronto as he has appeared as a singer at many events.

Kumagai left Toronto with his wife to study in New York since it is generally regarded as useless for any aspiring Canadian singer to pursue a career in Canada. He has now acquired a manager and perhaps more may be heard from ding.

How Now, Mr. Wilson?

One of the most truly astounding and paradoxical turnabouts of viewpoint ever recorded in the annals of the Japanese in Canada is the attitude of one Halford D. Wilson, Vancouver alderman.

Mr. Wilson, as many will remember, is the same man who carried a bitter, lurid tub-thumping campaign of discrimination and hate against the Japanese Canadians in the trying times before the last war, and shamefully crusaded for the crucifixion of a defenceless minority in the interests of petty politics, completely ignoring all fundamental human rights and liberties.

Now, it appears, Mr. Wilson has laid down his axe and has taken up the cry of civil liberties in an amazing reversal of form. And the man who battled with a consuming intensity in his hate-campaign against Japanese Canadians was the man who welcomed delegates to the recent B.C. Japanese Canadian Citizens Association's seventh conference, figuratively slapping them on the backs as good fellows.

Mr. Wilson has been described as a "charlatan", "a political demagogue", and an "amateur Hitler". Those names were fitting when the evidence is reviewed.

After Mr. Wilson, in one of his vitriolic speeches, said that "I am compelled to doubt the loyalty of Orientals. They are a people whose loyalty cannot be counted on if Canada were to become involved in world difficulties," The New Canadian in May, 1940, commented:

> "We have not the slightest iota of faith in Alderman Wilson's sincerity. We believe him to be inspired solely by a vicious and all-consuming racial prejudice, to be bent solely on his own political self-aggrandisement. For we have looked too long upon his stained hands, we have listened too long to his malicious and hate-mongering charges to be filled with anything but disgust and nausea.
> "With characteristic cunning he rouses the fires of racial prejudice with vicious charges of disloyalty again to prey upon a helpless minority group in Canada, again to receive letters of congratulations from the 'Native Daughters', whose support he seeks at the polls".

Let us consider some of his past activities.

Mr. Wilson pounded on the theme of the "Oriental Menace", all along he stated that Japanese residents may become a "far greater menace than any other aliens we have on the Pacific Coast". Among other things, he sought the restriction of trade licences issued to Japanese Canadians because they were becoming "a dominant factor in the business activitiy of Vancouver"; urged the cancellation of licences to Japanese Canadian fishermen because he was compelled to doubt their loyalty even though they be Canadian-born. He stated that he feared the "Oriental penetration into the economic life of the province" and "because the Japanese, as a racial group in B. C., are very fertile, the school population has increased rapidly and by 1968 may be expected to constitute one-third of Vancouver's school population".

To cite an example, he attempted to hold up the application of three Japanese for licence to operate dressmaking shops in the city, alleging that Japanese were maintaining sweat-shop conditions, in their homes, in the backs of stores, and in small dressmaking establishments, and that tuberculosis was rife in such places.

He carried his campaign to the point where he sought the segregation of Orientals in Vancouver where certain areas would be defined where they would be forced to reside.

These were only some of the things which political opportunist Wilson used to vindictively nuture the ugly serpent of racial intolerance denying the basic principles of the democratic way of life, rousing unnecessary fear and ill-will, rousing resentment among Japanese Canadians, fear and suspicion in others.

He exploited Japanese Canadians for his own political advancement and became the No. 1 anti-Japanese agitator. As a public servant, his efforts were wholly incompatible with his responsibilities. He left a crimson trail of ignominy behind him.

But it appears that our amazing Mr. Wilson is writing another chapter in his book of ideas. He is now advocating the cause of the brotherhood of men, the unity of all races, creeds and colors. A most noble cause to be sure. He is working, for example, with the Vancouver Civic Unity Council which is now helping to carry the fight for an anti-discrimination legislation in the city.

It is difficult to imagine such a chameleon-like reversal of form. The times have changed, at least for the Japanese Canadians, and obviously there is now no political advantage for Mr. Wilson in advocating any hate-campaign against defenceless minorities.

But if Mr. Wilson is totally sincere, then we would be the first to welcome it if he should fight for his new-found cause with the same intensity that he agitated against the Japanese Canadians.

WHAT OTHERS SAY:

Call Them Canadians

Japanese Canadians don't like the word "Jap" as applied to them and we can't say we blame them.

It belongs in the realm of other curt and usually derogatory abbreviations used—too often inaccurately in any case—to designate what might be called hyphenated Canadians. Such terms are "Chink", "Bohunk", "Polack" and the like. These terms are not heard very often today but they were common enough in former years. Those who still use them are unenlightened about the nature of the Canadian democracy.

We are a mixed people in Canada but do amazingly well despite it. Perhaps it would be true to say we do well because of it. We've operated in the past on the assumption that a good mixture of races makes for lively progress and a strong culture eventually. The immigration figures announced the other day in Ottawa indicate that we still operate on that theory.

But to make a success there must be tolerance and mutual respect between the peoples in the Canadian amalgam. It would be better if hyphens were dropped entirely but this is probably too much to hope for the present.

To our compatriots of Japanese origin we'd say that in most cases the use of the term "Jap" probably isn't meant in a derogatory way but for convenience. "Japanese Canadian" is quite a mouthful. Again we'd agree that it would be better not to use it at all. But frankly the suggested alternatives "Januck" and "Jee" aren't too inviting.

It would be strange and weird indeed if all the racial groups in our midst started designating themselves by peculiar variations of the familiar "Canuck". We'd have "Franucks" for French-Canadians, "Branucks" for British-Canadians, "Panucks" for Poles and so on. There'd be no "Canucks" anywhere and no chance ever of achieving a Canadian nationality.

Financial Woes

During emergencies, people are willing to support a national organization. Once the trouble is over, however, provincialism begins to creep in. This is true with almost every group.

The Canadian Japanese are running true to form, according to accounts in The New Canadian, a Japanese-English semi-weekly published in Toronto.

The subject matter pertains to the national Japanese Canadian Citizens Association which was formed in September, 1947. JACLers were invited to attend the first national conference at Toronto. The Canadians, who had suffered the same fate as Japanese Americans by being evacuated from the Canadian Pacific coast to interior regions had a great deal to learn from our experiences.

In order to effectively campaign for the restoration of their rights and for evacuation damages, a national organization was set up. It helped to improve conditions and status of the Canadians of Japanese origin. It had strong support until the objectives were accomplished.

Now, even a budget of $4,800 a year seems to be difficult to attain. The chapters are complaining about their quota. Unless the larger communities continue their support, the national JCCA seems to be on the brink of curtailing its activities to the point where its effectiveness will disappear.

While the position of Canadian Japanese seems to be weaker than ours, it seems to be tragic that a national organization cannot be maintained on a stronger basis.

Prestige of an organization cannot be built up overnight. Local problems can be managed by local groups. United effort, however, is necessary when a nationwide movement is undertaken.

The experience which the JCCA is undergoing is not an uncommon development. It is a trend which needs to be watched closely by every national organization.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Doesn't Like "Januck"

Editor, The New Canadian:

I was shocked to read that the delegates at the JCCA Convention in Vancouver had passed a resolution, suggesting that "Januck" be substituted for "Jap".

I strongly agree with the resolution in part, re: the ban (of the word "Jap"), but I most emphatically protest the suggestion of any concocted tag or label.

I suggest to the proper authorities to have the latter part of that resolution deleted or rescinded.

Ernest Oikawa,
Toronto, Ont.

(It has since been reported that the B.C. JCCA did not pass the resolution suggesting that "Januck" be substituted for "Jap" —Ed.)

Pleasurable Progress

Editor, The New Canadian:

I have watched with pleasure and satisfaction the fortitude and determination that have carried our Japanese Canadian citizens to distant and less congenial climes and enabled them to become self-supporting and useful members of our society . . . I shall continue to do so through the medium of your paper.

Wallace Cameron,

About Furuhashi

Editor, The New Canadian:

A small item in your issue of February 21 caught my eye. It concerned the barring of Hironoshin Furuhashi from the swimming competitions in Melbourne, Australia.

My sympathy lies not so much with the great Furuhashi but extends to the thousands who died and were wounded under the Australian banner, and even more to the thousands who lived and still maintain open hostility towards the Japanese people.

The dead have died in vain and the living have gained nothing by the victory over the Japanese aggression. I doubt greatly if most of them can explain the presence of their delegate to the United Nations or what his purpose there is, when incidents of this sort are happening in his own backyard.

Many thanks for publishing this item to keep us abreast of the times. Minute though it may seem, it is enough evidence to indicate that we are not yet ready for world government.

Vegreville, Alta.

War Brides Welcome

Editor, The New Canadian:

I simply could not let the remarks reprinted in your paper on Feb. 18 about a mother of a Canadian soldier protesting against the idea of Canadian soldiers marrying Japanese girls, remain unanswered. I would like to say, firstly, that if her son is old enough to fight for his people and country, then he is old enough to marry whom he pleases.

There is no difference in the sight of God between the yellow, black or white races. We are all equal, no matter how much we think of ourselves. No one in Canada is a real Canadian except for full-blooded Indians. Each person has come from a distant land and in actuality, are foreigners. For example, my mother is Scotch, my father is Irish and my grandfather Dutch.

My son is happy with his Japanese bride. I think Japanese are all wonderful, clean girls and can cook and keep house marvellously. I'm sure that if the mother loved her son, his happiness in marrying the Japanese girl would be hers too. I too have a daughter and I would never

ブラッドショウ氏は每月曜日トロント・スター紙の「マイ・ガーデン」というコルムでガーデンのことを書き、またシーエッアールビー放送局から每土曜日朝放送している有名な園藝家で、庭園については長い傳統と特殊な技能を持つ日系人が、ガーデン・クラブを組織して研究することに對し大きな關心を持ち出來るだけの援助をすると言つて鉢植の花類につき專門的な講演を行い、色々な角度から説明して質疑にも答えた。

ついで吉田英雄氏が座長となりガーデン・クラブ組織につき協議したが、次の會合を約三週間後に開くことにして準備委員を擧げ、更に會員を募つた上で、その會合で正式にクラブを結成し、名稱や會則等も定めることになつた。

過般晩香坡で開かれたビーシー州市協大會に招かれて演說した晩市のウイルソン市議の言葉は、戰前の彼を知るほどの人々すべてにとつて大きな驚きであつたろう。

そのウイルソン市議が、今や市民の自由と人種や宗教や皮膚の色の別を問わぬ同胞愛を叫び、そのための委員會の一員となつて働いているというのである。

先ず普通では想像できぬことで、人も變れば變るものだと言うほかはない。恐らくは彼が從軍して兵隊の間で人種の平等につき實地に敎えられたからでもあろうし、時代の推移を見る彼の賢さからの轉向でもあろうが、何れにしても善いことである。彼が以前の反日運動に力を入れたと同じ熱度をもつて同胞愛の運動に努力することを望むばかりである。

ラヂオ討議に　本紙記者も參加

マレンコフ新首相が國葬儀て演説

【ロンドン發】ソ連の新首相ジョルジ・エム・マレンコフ氏は九日のスターリン國葬儀式に際し、ソ連は西部國家間との共存と平和的競爭の存續を希望すると述べ、もしソ連が攻撃をうける場合はこれを撃退する用意あると次の點を力説した

われ〳〵の神聖なる責務は民主(共產)陣營の結合をかたくし、民主社會主義國家を强化存續することにあり二つの異つた組織、資本主義と社會主義の兩立並に平和的競爭の存續を根本的信條とするものである

マレンコフ　どんな男か？

スターリン氏國葬行わる

スターリン氏の國葬は九日午前十時から行われ、遺骸はレーニンの隣りに埋葬された。棺側にはソ連の首腦十名が從い、中共からは周恩來はじめ共產圈の代表が參列した

逸早く後繼者決る

歡迎準備の打合せ

皇太子さま、ナイアガラ御見學

皇太子殿下の御渡英スケジュールはカナダが國賓として殿下を迎わるのでオタワ政府の國務省内に歡迎準備委員會ができて準備中であるがまだ細目は決定しておらず、大体次の御[illegible]日程になつていることだけは判明した

吉田首相が「バカヤロー」と口すべらした事件について日本では「バカヤロー」が流行しているという。新聞からひろつてみると次の通り

△自由黨總務室、一總務が三木氏に「これで無血革命の機がいよ〳〵熟しましたね」といえば三木氏ニコニコしながら「無血革命も必要なくなつた」」とどうやら吉田政權の野たれ死を讀んでいるようだ

引揚げ交渉完了す　北京放送

【東京發】北京ラヂオは八日在中共内の三万ないし五万の日人引揚げの交渉は完了したと放送した。十三名の日本代表は中共との「歸還交渉」を成功裡に終了して歸國の途についたと報じ、船舶のアレンヂメントも出來上つているとのことである

日航が航空協定の成立を希望

賃銀増額を要求

ビーシー州のキャナリー勞働者、ネットウオーカー、コールドストレージ勞働者などは本年度の賃銀十パーセント乃至三十パーセント增額を會社側に要求することになつた。この新賃銀レートによるとキャナリー働き(男子)は時給一弗四十仙となるわけである

はなし

▽久邇宮さまをかつぎ出して元職員や政務次官だつた六名の連中が「在米同胞慰問團」として近く渡米するかも知れぬのでこれは日系人を喰い物にするためのものだから、何卒貴紙でその眞相をバクロして日系人に注意してほしいと在外邦字新聞協會から來信があつた

英米協力　中共へ禁輸策

大体次の通り

皇太子さま御歡迎の方式について日本大使館は九日付次の發表を行つた

▽時間と場所の許すかぎり歡迎希望の日系人(一、二世をふくむ)の多數に面接される。但し少數個人の個別的歡迎はこれをさける

▽細目日程決定の都合もあり各地における歡迎方針、希望等は至急大使館まで通知下さい

Toronto Basketball Moves Into Finals

Playoff games in the Toronto Nisei Basketball League were played close to the chest as only Mustang Juniors repeated their victory, both Rhapsody and Rebels going down to defeat but retaining their wins by virtue of their leads in the openers of the two-game semi-finals.

Mustang Jrs. 41 — Orphans 39

Orphans were eliminated from further play in the junior playoffs when they were downed 41-39 but not without giving the league-leaders a battle. The losers, down 11 points, opened up strong in the first quarter, creeping up to within five points of Mustangs in total points with George Kanda's set-shots a source of inspiration.

Led by Joe Wani and Ron Mori, Mustangs pulled ahead in the final half. Play roughened up near the final minutes and when the whistle blew, Mustangs took the round, 84-69. High scorers were Orphans' George Kanda with 15, followed by Mustangs' Ron Mori 9 and Henry Edamura 9.

Hamilton 48 — Club Rhapsody 42

Going into the second game behind 19 points, Hamilton played a fine game outplaying Rhapsody and taking the game 48-42 but fell short in the total points, 99-86. Both teams employed zone defence, slowing the game up to a walk at times. Frank Shimoda put in some brilliant shots for 11 points in the first half to put Hamilton in the lead 24-15. Handcuffed by the zone defence and some fine backboard play of Shin Fukumoto, Rhapsody's ace Bob Adachi was held to 6 points in the first half.

Hamilton switched to the man-to-man defence and speeded up the game. Finding this system to the advantage of Club Rhapsody, Adachi broke loose for 16 points in the final half. His total output of 22 points was the high for the game. Frank Shimoda was Hamilton's best with 16 and Kaz Nishimura was next in line with 12.

Whiz Kids 67 — Rebels 66

In a closely fought Senior game Whiz Kids eked out a 67-66 win but lost out in the 2-game total-point series by seven points.

Whiz Kids took the lead from the opening tip-off, but Rebels came back strongly, with the lead exchanging several times. The first half score read 34-32 for Rebels. Rebs netted 12 points on foul shots in the first half with Hirano putting in 5 out of 6 from the foul line as the Kids checked the high-scoring Hirano fiercely, thus fouling him incessantly. Fred Miyasaki, Whiz Kids guard, fouled out in the 1st half, leaving the Kids with only six men.

In the second half, the game really opened up at a fast clip with some fine offensive plays by Paul Hirano, Roy Kurita, Yuki Kameoka, Aki Hayashi, and Seiji Takata. Takata, playing one of his finest games of the season, was a standout for the Whiz Kids both offensively and defensively. Rebels' attack was mainly built around speedy Paul Hirano, while the rest put up a strong defensive unit. Due to some tenacious checking on both sides, Rebels big guard Jackson Onishi left the game via the foul route in the final half, while the Kids were hampered with only six men, and having both Soc Tsukamoto and Johnny Iwama with four fouls each.

Hirano came up with another fine game and was high for the night with 28 points. Whiz Kids had four in the double figures, Yuki Kameoka 19, Aki Hayashi 18, Seiji Takata 14, Soc Tsukamoto 11. Mush Fukumoto and Roy Kurita added 12 and 9 respectively for the Rebels.

Rebels now meet Mustangs in the finals in a 2-game total point series.

Games for this Friday, March 13, are Mustangs vs Rhapsody, 7 p.m. (junior) and Mustangs vs Rebels, 8.30 p.m. (senior).

Vancouver Teen Hoop Squads Beat Steveston

VANCOUVER — Vancouver teenage basketball teams turned back two bids of visiting Steveston teams, the boys winning 30-24 and the girls belting the opposition 38-12 in games played on Feb. 21 at the old Richmond High School gym.

In the boys' game, Kaname Oye racked up 13 points to lead the Vancouverites while best for the losers were Tom Akizuki and Roy Akune, each with six points.

In the preliminary game, the Vancouver Teenettes walked through the Steveston Teenagers 38-12 with Evelyn Horita having a field day with 22 points. The win was the fourth straight for the Vancouver girls.

Flyers Win Two More, Move into Top Spot

Nisei Flyers added two more wins last week to move into a first place tie with UNFY Bruins in their THL group. Their record is a creditable 13 wins, 3 losses and 1 tie.

The Flyers nipped Baush & Lomb 3-2 in an inter-group game at Aurora with Major Fukumoto, Greg Susshon and Dave Sunahara collecting goals.

Rai Adachi collected a shutout as Flyers belted Gordon McKay 12-0 at Woodbridge in their highest scoring spree of the season. Greg Cusshon topped the corers with an outburst of four goals. Two-goal getters were Joe Togawa and Ron Pierre, while Roy Kobayashi, Major Fukumoto, Roy Standish and Roy Tanaka added singletons.

With one more inter-group game scheduled this week, Flyers will likely move into the playoffs shortly.

B. Tanaka, G. Ide Major High-Scorers

Feature of last Friday's get-together of the Toronto Nisei Majors were good individual scores. No major upsets or drastic changes occured among the teams.

Radio Vision and T. Uyeda MB were the only big winners taking 7-0 triumphs from Alexander and Menzies. In other games: Takeda 5, Stan Karn 2; Lowe Bros. 5, DuRite 2; El Mocambo 4, Spadina 3; Sora 4, Urabe 3; Ascot 4, Yamada 3; Lewis 4, Wasser's 3.

Bing Tanaka topped the good scores with a lofty 860(362) and not too far off was George Ide's 843(330). Other better scores turned in: C. Sakura 808(319), S. Ono 805(313), J. Tehara 799 (309), K. Hayashi 787(321), M. Ieshima 772, S. Amemori 772, R. Sasaki 768(318), S. Taguchi 761, N. Yano 751(316), T. Tanabe 746, T. Shiga 744, E. Nakamura 739, M. Tanaka 738, H. Iida 731, K. Nagasaka 729, J. Izumi 711, K. Shimizu 710, J. Nishizaki 707, M. Nishikawa 701.

Five more weeks of schedule remain to be played.

CHATHAM FIVES SPLIT MONTHLY TEN-PIN MATCH WITH VISITING DETROITERS, J. NISHIZAKI TOPS

CHATHAM, Ont. — Chatham and Detroit teams split their friendly monthly ten-pin match on Feb. 28 at the Bowl-O-Drome, Chatham's No. 1 team winning by 59 pins and No. 2 team losing by 95 pins.

Leading the No. 1 team were Jack Nishizaki who scored a 551 triple, (205, 214) and George Nishizaki 540(212) to lead the Canadian Nisei to a 2405 to 2346 total pin win. Frank Furukawa and Eiji Shibata were best for the Americans with 480(193) and 480(180) respectively.

Others on the Chatham team were Kay Kamai 417(173), Mori Higa 481(171), and John Kondo 416(154). Other Detroiters were Wes Kajaota 478(176), Eddie Matsui 456(163), and Frank Kuroda 452(153).

In the second feature, Detroit's No. 2 team won 2335 to 2240 pins from their hosts. Dave Izumi led the winners with 516(197) while strong in the Canadian cause were Sab Seki 528(200) and Toji Fujii 509(199). Other Chathamites were Yas Masuda 363(125), Jeep Seki 442(160), and Aki Fujii 398(144).

Lose Opener of Ont. Playoffs, 74-56

KINGSTON, Ont. — St. Christopher Mustangs, T & D titlists, fell back 18 points in the first game of the 2-game total-point quarter finals for the O.B.A. Intermediate "A" championships when they lost 74-56 to Edward Monarchs of Kingston at the Queen's University on March 7.

Mustangs were able to keep on even terms with Kingston and at one point in the second quarter, were ahead by 10 points before Kingston surged back. Half-time score read 28-25 for Kingston.

In the second half, Kingston ran away with the game, hitting the hoop from all over the floor.

High scorers for Mustangs were Ed Boguski 21, Bill Wowchuk 11, Herb Miyasaki 8, Mako Makimoto 5 and Ken Miyasaki 4.

Mustangs hope to overcome the 18-point deficit in their coming game in Toronto this Sat., March 14 and continue on their quest for the Ontario title. They hope for strong local support from Nisei fans to urge them on as well as helping to defray expenses. Site of the gym will be announced later.

LETTER TO EDITOR

stand in her way if she loved a man and wanted to marry him.

I have taught my children that position, appearance and money are nothing, the only thing that matters being a person's heart.

I hope that this Canadian soldier will marry this Japanese girl and come to settle in Canada, despite the narrow-minded prejudice that his mother seems to bear against such marriages. There have been thousands of immigrants coming to Canada from Europe and there is no reason why Japanese war brides should be less welcome.

I wish this Canadian soldier and his wife-to-be every happiness and success.

Mrs. Marie Venne,
Medicine Hat, Alta.

(Mrs. Venne is the mother-in-law of the first Japanese war bride to came to Canada—Ed.)

Canada Welcomes You into the Canadian Family

SOME NECESSARY STEPS TO CITIZENSHIP

1. File a declaration of intention to become a Canadian citizen. This may be done any time after landing but must be done at least one year before the petition for citizenship is filed.
2. File an application for citizenship. This may be done after five year's residence in Canada.
3. Learn either French or English. Canada's two official languages and become familiar with Canada's history and form of government so that you will be sure to qualify for citizenship when you appear in court to be examined.

To fully enjoy the rights and privileges which may be yours in Canada, plan now to become a Canadian citizen. If you are 18 years of age or more and if you are a landed immigrant you may take the first step now.

When you become a Canadian citizen you cease to be an alien. You travel on a Canadian passport. You share in government and have the right to vote and be a candidate for public office.

You can secure full information about becoming a Canadian citizen by filling out the coupon below and sending it to the Citizenship Branch, Department of Citizenship and Immigration, Ottawa.
